

Foster Families Session 5

Self evaluation questions

1. The function of creating a natural rhythm of activities during the day is carried out by:
  - a. relation work
  - b. practical activities and pauses in a flexible structure
  - c. educational activities aimed at developing psychological skills
  - d. leisure activities

2. Showing clear facial expressions and talk with a clear voice is typical of:
  - a. caregiving provided to children with psychological problems
  - b. secure caregiving
  - c. caregiving provided to foreign children
  - d. all of previous options

3. Why are foster parents the most important people in the life of orphan children?
  - a. Without them children could not eat, drink, be clean and dressed
  - b. Without them children could not be educated
  - c. Children learn from them how to become a social person
  - d. Children learn from them how communicate and express themselves

4. Being accessible for the child when the child needs the caregiver is a characteristic of:
  - a. practical activities in caregiving
  - b. secure caregiving
  - c. caregivers who take care of orphan children
  - d. none of previous options

5. What are Attachment Patterns?
  - a. Ways in which children cope with separation and stress from their caregivers
  - b. Ways in which children build relationships with other children
  - c. Ways in which children manifest their feelings
  - d. Ways in which children build relationships with adults